ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

To Present "Diamonds and Hearts."
Diamonds and Hearts is the title of a very amusing play about a lady with an affection of the heart, which will be acted at the home of Mr. Frank Glasgow at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. The cast includes Miss Bernard Harvie, Miss Sue Welford, Miss Maud Burwell, and Miss Mary Carrington, with Messrs. Massie Notting, George McCreery, Ben Brookbrough, Stuart Woodward, Miss Annie Tatum, and Mr. Coulting. They are members of a dramatic club here that has produced some very fine amateur actors, but this is the first instance of their giving the general public the benefit of their performances. The play has been staged for charitable reasons, and is being looked forward to with pleasure by many Richmond people.

Excursion to Westover Yesterday.
An excursion was run down the James to Westover yesterday, for the benefit of St. Paul's Church Home, and the steamer Ariel, which was used for the occasion, took a large and happy party to Major Dewey's lovely estate. The day was an ideal one for a river trip, and the excursionists enjoyed themselves immensely.

Small Fire at Commonwealth Club.
An alarm of fire at 10 o'clock last night, from Box 23, corner of Monroe and Main streets, summoned the department to the Commonwealth Club. A small fire had occurred in the kitchen, but it was soon extinguished. In some manner the chef had put a pan of grease on the range, and the grease quickly blazed up and set fire to the smokestack. The damage was very trifling.

Stall Entered Her Foot.
A stall entering her in the sidewalk at the corner of Pine and Main streets yesterday caused pain to a young lady whose name could not be ascertained. In passing along the street she stepped on the stall, which penetrated her shoe and entered her foot for some depth. She limped to her home near by and summoned medical attention.

Give the Soldiers Literature.
To the Editor of the Dispatch:
Would it not be well if the kind ladies who are so generously contributing to the comfort of our young soldiers, to add to their generous efforts such literature (as could be collected) bearing on the glorious cause for which they have volunteered life and limb? It would refresh their memories, stimulate their chivalry, and give strength to the arm that is being called to rescue the oppressed from the heel of the tyrant! as well as answer the "call of thy brother's sword," which cries to me from the "ground." The call has been unheeded many long years, and still the cry goes up, but the cry has at last reached the "ear of the Lord of Sabaoth!" He is making this free, Christianized country His avenger. He is who "never bears the sword in vain!" Let the "History of the Spanish Inquisition," massacre of Huguenots, &c., &c.; "History of the Reformation," and many other books, which no doubt will occur to those interested in the present dreary struggle between the great Powers. May our armies succeed. A CONSTANT READER.

THE LATE JUDGE ROBERTSON.
Action of the Charlottesville Bar--The Funeral.
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May 28--(Special).--Charlottesville Bar met at 1 o'clock this afternoon to take action in regard to the death of Judge William J. Robertson. The Hon. S. V. Southall was called to the chair, and paid high tribute to the deceased lawyer, as advocate, citizen, and man. He spoke of the long roll of distinguished members of this bar who had died, and said that Judge Robertson was the peer of any of them--a man of great integrity, of unvarying courtesy, and kindness, of vast intellect, and untiring energy. Who, said the speaker, ever knew a greater lawyer, a more loyal friend, a better husband, or father!

Mr. John W. Fishburne was made secretary, and, upon motion, a committee of five was appointed to report resolutions, in which the sentiment of the bar could go upon record. This committee consisted of George Perkins, L. T. Hancok, R. T. W. Duke, Jr., John H. Moon, and R. H. Wood. The committee reported, and their submitted even higher tributes than they embodied were paid in speeches by Captain Michael Woods, C. D. Fishburne, and Judge R. T. W. My Dear Comrade--Your very kind favor of the 9th instant, inviting me to be present and participate in a reunion of Confederate veterans to be held near McDowell on May 7th has been received. Belief in Wall Street That its Powerlessness to Do Mischief Has Been Demonstrated, and That It Is Doomed to Defeat--Wheat Stamp.

NEW YORK, May 28.--The fact that to-day was a holiday in London, and that Monday would be a holiday both in New York and London, had the effect of curtailing speculative operations in stocks. There were two conflicting reports in circulation, both coming by different routes from the West Indies, one alleging that the United States fleet had been sunk and the admiral killed, and the other that Admiral Cervera had vacated the harbor of Santiago and escaped with his fleet.
The market was not large nor the movement wide to-day, and changes were small. There was a reaction coincident with the publication of the bank statement, which was on its face favorable. But the expansion of over $5,000,000 in loans, while suggesting activity in business, goes with the knowledge that supplies of commercial paper have not been large in the market, nor has the demand for time loans been eager. The close for stocks was, however, near the top prices, under the manipulation, and generally a fraction above last night's closing price. Prices of stocks show some substantial gains over those of a week ago, though the latter part of the week has seen a falling off in activity.

THE SPANISH SQUADRON.
The later resistance to the decline has been encouraging to the bull element, and the belief in general in Wall Street that the powerlessness of Cervera's fleet to do mischief has been demonstrated, and its ultimate defeat by the United States forces is a matter of time. The financial world looks forward to this defeat to bring into play many factors of strength in the speculative outlook. Most potent of these is the condition of the money market, which may now fairly be deemed as being June. The country's net gold imports for the fiscal year will exceed $100,000,000, which has never before been approached, except in 1881, when it was over $70,000,000. There has been the same time from a largely increased output of gold by the home mines, the product for the present year being estimated at $50,000,000.
The bond market has broadened during the week, and has given evidence of investment buying at home prices. Prices are considerably higher all around. United States 4's have advanced 1-2, and the 5's 1-4 in the bid price. Others are unchanged.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE.
Money on call easier at 1-1/4-1-1/2 per cent.; last week 1-1/2-1-3/4 per cent. Sterling exchange steady and nominal, with actual business in bankers' bills at 48.50-48.75 for demand, and at 48.10-48.35 for sight; 30 days, 47.75-48.00; 60 days, 47.25-47.50; 90 days, 46.75-47.00. Silver certificates, 65c. 65-66. Silver, 57-58. Mexican dollars, 45-46. State bonds dull. Railroad bonds strong. Government bonds strong; new 4's, registered.

BANK STATEMENT.
The weekly bank statement shows the following changes:
Surplus reserve, increase, $2,989,500.
Loans, increase, $3,021,000.
Specie, increase, $1,525,200.
Legal tenders, increase, $2,284,500.
Deposits, increase, $15,015,000.
Circulation, decrease, $6,800,000.
The banks now hold $57,794,000 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent. rule.

SOLDIERS' PAY AND RATIONS.
(New York Press).
The young roosters who have been leaving around town all their lives and are now commissioned officers are well paid for their services to their country, considering that they couldn't earn a dollar at any other business. They are paid $231 a month, Lieutenant-colonels $260, majors $225, captains $160, second-lieutenants $135, first-lieutenants $110, and privates $13.50. The ration of a soldier is as follows: Twelve ounces of corn meal, 1/2 pound of beef, and four ounces of fresh beef, or 22 ounces of salt beef; 18 ounces of soft bread or flour, or about 16 ounces of hard bread, or 1 pound and 4 ounces of corn meal; 100 rations of 15 pounds of beans or peas, or 10 pounds of rice, or hominy; 10 pounds of green coffee or about 8 pounds of roasted, or about 2 pounds of tea; 15 pounds of sugar; 4 pounds of butter; 100 rations of 15 pounds of candles; 4 pounds of soap; 4 pounds of salt; 4 ounces of pepper; and 10 troops in the field, when necessary, 4 pounds of yeast-powder to 100 rations of flour. Substitutes may be made for any of the articles suitable to the climate and the military conditions.

Russian Soldiers.
(New York Press).
A great many of our lah-de-lah lollipop somebody's son officers have been attached to the substance department so that they may be sure of getting the best there is to eat. Our soldiers are the best paid and best fed in the world. The wages of a common soldier in Russia are three rubles per annum, or 100 roubles, or 500 francs daily, two pounds of sugar, which is a very coarse kind of bread made of cracked rye, baked hard at first, then cut in small pieces and further dried in a heated oven; a small quantity of salt and pepper; a soup of boiling 40 gallons. Into the water is cast some cracked barley, together with the shell-dirt, and to this the soup is added. The soup is then the best kind enters into the composition. The soup is dealt out by a number of men with dippers, every soldier in his turn receiving his allotted quantity. Sometimes an adventurous fellow gets a larger share than the regulations require, and when detected in the effort to get more than his share is punished with 100 lashes on his naked back.

The financial world looks forward to this defeat to bring into play many factors of strength in the speculative outlook. Most potent of these is the condition of the money market, which may now fairly be deemed as being June. The country's net gold imports for the fiscal year will exceed $100,000,000, which has never before been approached, except in 1881, when it was over $70,000,000. There has been the same time from a largely increased output of gold by the home mines, the product for the present year being estimated at $50,000,000.
The bond market has broadened during the week, and has given evidence of investment buying at home prices. Prices are considerably higher all around. United States 4's have advanced 1-2, and the 5's 1-4 in the bid price. Others are unchanged.
